The Modern Caste System in Tamil Nadu

Exploration of experiencing caste through traditions, customs in Tirunelveli

Rick Rejeleene

August 10, 2015

Table of contents

About this work 1
Document: 1
References: 1

About this work

This essay explores the historical roots, lived experiences, and proposed remedies for caste-based discrimination in modern Tamil Nadu from Tirunelveli. It can be part of Sociology, Anthropology work on social mobility, hierarchy in South India.

Document:

Originally written August 10, 2015 · Major rewrite December 2018 · To be rewritten June 24, 2025

> Note
>
> This page embeds the original PDF and will be progressively migrated to native markdown. For optimal readability you can also use the download link below.

Download the full article

References:

B.R. Ambedkar's Annihilation of Caste remains a critical text for understanding caste in India and Tamil Nadu. Originally written in 1936 as a speech and later self-published, it critiques the caste system and advocates for its abolition.[1]

---

[1] B.R. Ambedkar, Annihilation of Caste, 1936. Available: https://ia601009.us.archive.org/20/items/AnnihilationOfCasteDr.B.r.ambedkar/Annihilation%20of%20caste%20Dr.B.r.ambedkar